6th Annual Spring Luncheon

The FFOF 6th Annual Spring Luncheon was successfully held on Saturday, March 24 at Maria Pia in Mid-town Manhattan. Over 50 alum and friends came from as far as Boston, Ithaca, Washington DC, Chicago and San Francisco. The classes represented span from 1979 to 2011.

In the fully packed Italian eatery, keynote speaker Ned Cloonan led a discussion on the Sino-US economic and diplomatic relations. Ned compared and contrasted models of economic development, enumerated opportunities and challenges faced by foreign enterprises in China, drawing rich anecdotes from his 30 year experience representing AIG at the forefront of its various global businesses. Ned was followed by some warm remarks from ex-dean of the school, Mrs. Qin Duxin, who reminisced her 26 years of joyful teaching experience at Fuzhong and thanked the Foundation for its generous contribution. Her presence was a pleasant surprise to many of her former students.

The 2011 foundation work report was delivered by Minhua Zhang ('00), director of Fund Raising. Minhua gave a comprehensive and vivid overview of all the on-going fund deployment programs (one need-based and two merit-based scholarships, Student Resource Center and Chemistry Lab Instrument Purchase) as well as the fund-raising landscape, financial details, alumni network and social outreach projects.

The entire luncheon lasted more than 3 hours, leaving with many alumni wishing for even more social time(!). Old friends were reconnected and new friendships were found. Over $7,000 were raised with $2,000 additional pledges. For pictures, luncheon handout and Foundation presentation, please visit fdfzalumni.org/index.php?name=luncheon\_2012. We look forward to seeing all of you again next year!

Longfeifei Summer Camp

After three years of success in Fudan Fuzhong, Shanghai, "Longfeifei Youth Summer Camp" will continue providing variety of exciting summer activities for children joining from all over the world.

“Longfeifei Youth Summer Camp – Fudan Fuzhong 2012” will take place from July 2 to July 20. Whether overnighter or daily commuter, students will form individualized curriculum by choosing from more than 50 classes that focus on language development and character fostering. Building upon last three years of success, we broaden the range of the courses to include such unique offerings:

"Shakespeare for Sure", "Lil' Dreamer's Movie Making

Class", "English Speaking and Writing" and "Leadership in Charity", etc. Longfeifei Shanghai was, and will continue to be a well thought platform for children to expand their horizon.

“Longfeifei Youth Summer Academy – The Lowell Whiteman School 2012” will take place in Steamboat Springs, CO, USA, from July 23 to August 10. Boarding students take originally designed classes and activities that focus on language enrichment and intensive research, enjoying the essence of America's Liberal Arts education.

Help Organize 2012 FDFZ Alumni Party in SHANGHAI

“From all the high schools in China, only FDFZ can organize such an alumni reunion.” – Ex-Principal Mr. Xie Yingping, quoted by “Shanghai Campus” (an online media) in its report for the event.

Last year, Doris Ke ('08) organized a FDFZ alumni cocktail party on August 5, 2011 in Shanghai with over 400 alumni attending the event. FDFZ's ex-Principal Yingping Xie was invited to give the opening remarks and a series of performances and interactive games were organized for participants to reconnect with each other. More than 200 self-designed alumni t-shirt was sold at the event. The reunion turned out to be blast among students and professionals in Shanghai.

Due to personal reasons, Doris cannot return to Shanghai to organize 2012 alumni party. As alumni in Shanghai are highly expecting an alumni reunion this year, we are looking for alumni who would be interested. If you are interested, feel free to reach Doris Ke at doriskeke@gmail.com
